Instructors

David Birdsall—Co-owner of Northeast Woodland Training, Inc. for 16 years is a “wood educator”. His experiences in teaching are grounded in his work as a consulting forester, logger and portable sawmill owner/operator. He has worked extensively with young adults across VT teaching them Game of Logging safety and techniques.

Allan Sands—Retired 36 years from VT Department of Forests & Parks is now doing something he really likes and believes in “Game of Logging”. He took GOL levels 1 to 4 in 2008 and after his first tree cut with the new technique he was hooked and continues to use the new way. He has been with Northeast Woodland Training, Inc. for 16 years, 9 of those years as a certified instructor.
